

First Sergeant (Retired) Franklin Brown
Army Instructor

1SG Brown graduated from the Field Artillery School as a MLRS Crewman at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. His military education includes completion of the Primary Leadership Development Course, Basic Noncommissioned Officers Course, and Advanced Noncommissioned Officers Course, Battle Staff Non Commissioned Officers Course and the First Sergeants Academy.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, Army Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, Joint Service Achievement Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal and Overseas Service Ribbon.

1SG Brown served for twenty seven years on active duty. His final assignment on active duty was his four years as an ROTC instructor at Georgia Tech. Following retirement, 1SG Brown has served for twelve years as a JROTC instructor in Georgia motivating young people to be better citizens.